

Dr. Andrea Wilson

Executive Director of Elementary Education

Dr. Andrea Wilson is the Executive Director of Elementary Education for Liberty Public Schools in Liberty, MO. She serves the district by working with elementary building leaders as well as the Early Childhood Center to develop and implement educational services and programs. Andrea has spent 29 years in education with 25 of these years serving LPS. She began her educational career as an elementary teacher in Kansas. Upon moving to Missouri, she spent 10 years teaching science at Liberty Middle School (LMS) and South Valley Middle School (SVMS) collectively. Her administration career began as an assistant principal at both LMS and SVMS for three years. The last 12 years have been spent as the principal of Kellybrook Elementary School. Dr. Wilson holds an Ed.D in Leadership from Saint Louis University, an Educational Specialist from Northwest Missouri State University, a Master of Education from Park University, and a Bachelor of Science from Northwest Oklahoma State University. Andrea is married to her husband, Craig, of 25 years who is an LPS graduate. Together, they have two beautiful daughters and two precious grandchildren. In her spare time, she loves to read, explore new places, play with her grandchildren, and take in the great outdoors. Dr. Andrea Wilson's passion for lifelong learning and success for all are what motivate her educational endeavors.
