LPS Community,

The LPS Board of Education met briefly this morning to formally approve the latest Return to Learn addendum following the announcement last week of the KCMO mask ordinance for schools. To view the updated plan, click here. In addition, we continue to encourage staff and families to view our Frequently Asked Questions document, which is updated regularly and posted on our Return to Learn web page. This document provides answers to many of the common questions you may have, including the most recently updated quarantine guidance for our students and staff.

LPS will remain committed to providing our staff and families with regular updates related to the pandemic, as necessary.

Thank you for your attention, and have a great start to the week!
